Subject: RE: TiVo v Motorola - DIRECTV consent to production of confidential information

Aaron,

I understand that this request involves RPTV00000001 to RPTV00079181 and RPTV-SC-00000001 to RPTV-SC-00015079, which Mr. Shanson apparently kept when he left ReplayTV in 2001 or 2002. Assuming my understanding is correct, DIRECTV has no objection to Motorola being given access to these documents under the terms of the protective order that has been applied to these documents.

We aren't entirely sure which documents these are, and therefore request that one of the parties provide us an electronic (or paper) copy so our records are clear. Can that be arranged?

Louis

Hello Louis,

Since Tuesday, I have come to understand that in the TiVo v. AT&T case, Spencer Shanson provided documents that were produced by Microsoft with an RPTV Bates Number. I further understand that these documents were directed to the ReplayTV technology that is the subject of the DTVRP Bates Numbered documents referenced in your letter. Please confirm that DIRECTV's consent set forth in your letter extends to the RPTV Bates Numbered documents provided by Mr. Shanson.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Regards,
